

Family Time Activity Sheet

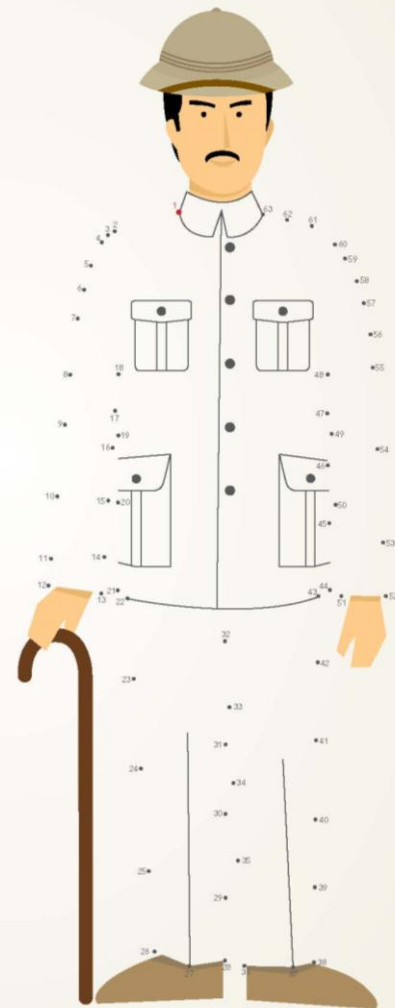

Check out the website for more details at <http://wanqingyuan.org.sg/>

Dr. Sun Yat Sen is referred to as "The Man Who Changed China". He played an important role in overthrowing the Qing Dynasty, the last imperial dynasty of China.

At the beginning of the Republic, men's costume mainly consisted of the mandarin jacket and long gown. However, Dr. Sun Yat Sen preferred the simple Western costume with front pockets where he could put his belongings. The costume was eventually given the name "Zhong Shan Suit".

The Young Dr. Sun Yat Sen

Love for His People

Dr. Sun Yat Sen was outspoken and daring young man. He believed in "bō ài" (博爱), which means universal love or loving everyone.

Colour the Chinese characters in the box below.

Reflection Time!
How do you show LOVE to your family members and your country?

The Three Principles of the People refer to Nationalism (mín zú), Democracy (mín quán) and Livelihood (mín shēng). These were espoused by Dr. Sun Yat Sen for the establishment of the Republican government.

Join the correct explanations to the Three Principles of the People.

Three Principles of the People

民族
mín zú
NATIONALISM

• Having individual rights

民权
mín quán
DEMOCRACY

• Enjoying a high standard of living

民生
mín shēng
LIVELIHOOD

• Loving one's nation

One of the important values in our lives is RESPECT.
How do we show respect when we are in the museum?
How do we show respect to the elders and our friends?

Around The World

While in exile, Dr. Sun Yat Sen travelled around the world to spread his revolutionary ideas. Some of the countries which he had visited were Canada, China, France, Hawaii, Japan, Malaysia, Myanmar, Singapore, Thailand, United Kingdom and United States of America.

Can you identify the countries in the map below?

Did you know ?
Dr. Sun Yat Sen visited Singapore eight times between 1900 and 1911. He first came to Singapore to rescue his Japanese friend Miyazaki Toten and subsequently to set up a branch of Tong Meng Hui. His final visit took place in December 1911 after the success of the Wuchang Uprising.

Can you spot Singapore on the world map?
What are some of the things in Singapore that you are proud of?

Around The World

Answer Sheet!

Did you manage to get all the countries right?

Canada

United States of America

Hawaii

United Kingdom

France

China

Japan

Myanmar

Thailand

Malaysia

Singapore

Did you know?

Dr. Sun Yat Sen visited Singapore eight times between 1900 and 1911. He first came to Singapore to rescue his Japanese friend Miyazaki Toten and subsequently to set up a branch of Tong Meng Hui. His final visit took place in December 1911 after the success of the Wuchang Uprising.